Cindy Khin, CPCU, Promoted to Chief Claims Officer

In keeping with Medmarc's mission to be the superior provider of liability protection and related risk management services to the medical technology and life sciences industry, we are proud to announce that Cindy Khin has been promoted to the newly-created position of Chief Claims Officer. She will continue to report to Mark Steen, Vice President of Insurance Operations.

In her new role, Cindy will be responsible for aligning the Company's claims management services with the underwriting function, providing technical oversight and professional development for the claims examiners, managing complex claims and mass torts and creating claims disposition solutions to further improve upon Medmarc's ability to meet policyholders' needs, wants and expectations. In announcing Cindy's promotion and new responsibilities, Mark Steen stated: "Throughout Cindy's career at Medmarc she has consistently delivered quality service and superior claims outcomes for our policyholders. Her experience and dedication make her uniquely qualified to be our Chief Claims Officer".

Cindy joined Medmarc in 1989 as an Assistant Claims Manager and has held a series of progressively more responsible positions. She has also earned several professional designations including the American Insurance Institutes Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter, Associate in Claims and Associate in Risk Management. Additionally, Cindy is an instructor for the DC Chapter of CPCU. When not working to protect the reputations and assets of Medmarc's policyholders, Cindy travels, collects art and shoes.
